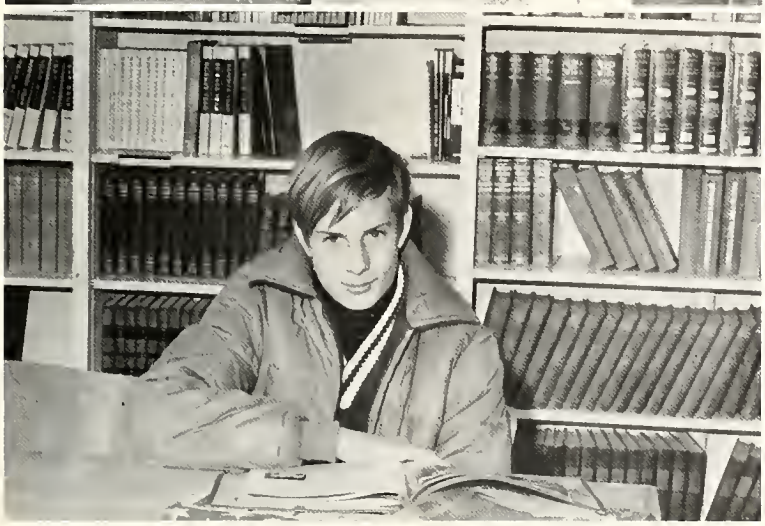
Tse Yaaniichii



Dedication

The Tse Yaaniichii staff of 1972 proudly dedicates its work to Mr. William Hoekstra. We chose this way to express our sincere appreciation for your service in the past and in the present.

Your firm hand in supervising our detail assignments is not often appreciated at the moment, but when we stop to realize the good effects it has upon our future, we are very thankful.

The whole school appreciates the many hours you spend making our regular meals and lunches for trips and picnics, especially when we realize how long it takes to make sure each meal and lunch is on time and "quality checked."

Thank you for your spiritual guidance! Many of us have been inspired by your Christian attitude and actions every day. It has been much like the yeast in the homemade bread that you make. The whole batch of dough will rise with just a little yeast. Your Christianity has often challenged us to live a stronger Christian life.

Thank you and God's blessings as you continue!

Superintendent's Message

The year (El Año) is now. Some of it is behind us with successes and failures. Some of it is ahead of us with anticipated success or uncertainty. For some this year will be a pinnacle of their lives with almost everything falling into place with meaning. For others it will be confusing and a time for searching. It is our prayer and hope that Rehoboth Mission School will provide for you the experiences that enable you to find Christian meaning in life. May El Año be for you the year you learned your place in the Kingdom of God.

Post Office

POSTMISTRESS:
Mrs. E. Henry takes care of all our mail efficiently and does various tasks for the business office.

Mr. Ed Berkompas often gets under cars and trucks to keep them in "tip-top" shape.

Mrs. Boyd is more than just our busy secretary; she is also "Counselor" to many students. We thank her for her patient understanding this past year.

Mr. Barton is our official maintenance man. Besides fixing EVERYTHING in sight, he coaches, runs errands, and takes students to the hospital.

SPORTS

Varsity: Rarin' to Go

Following last year's team, our varsity this year had a very impressive season.

Their record, 18-3 placed them first in the 8AA district.

Under the fine coaching of Mr. Kuipers the team worked hard to exhibit good sportsmanship, teamwork, and to understand the need for each player to make a more well-developed squad.

Although these young athletes didn't experience a very victorious season, they played to the best of their abilities and did a good job of gaining more knowledge of this very active sport.

Dave was one of the players who had the responsibility of bringing down the ball.

Varsity

leaders

Juanita, Juan, Violet and Gloria

Our 1972 Varsity cheerleaders went with the team to all the games, most often cheering the men on to victory; but if the need was there, they also encouraged them after a loss. We think that we can change the proverb a little to say "behind every good team there is a good bunch of cheerleaders."

On Friday, Jan. 28, the Lynx played their Homecoming game with Navajo Mission defeating them with a score of 79-66.

Immediately following the junior varsity game, Jean Belone, our 1972 Homecoming Queen, was crowned by Gertie Yazzie, 1971 Homecoming Queen. Jean then invited all alumni and people interested in forming a booster club to meet in the library after the game for coffee and fellowship.

Pep Club

This year the pep club did a remarkable job of cheering the "big" and "little" Lynx on to victory. They showed much enthusiasm and good sportsmanship at every game, even when they were many points behind.

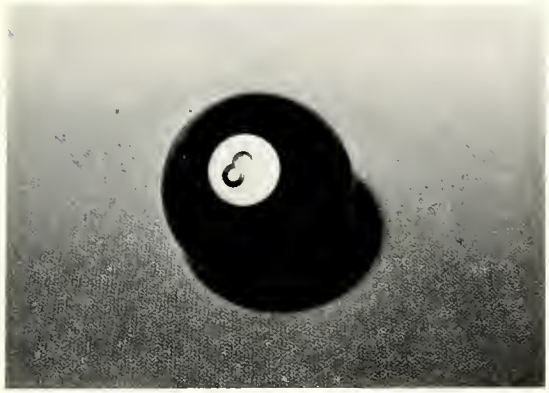
THIS IS LYNX COUNTRY

STUDENT LIFE

In the dorm the student has responsibility to take upon himself, knowing that he will not always be told what to do. Elmer here is an example of applying himself to his studying.

Now Kurt does not look like he is the responsible party for his own actions in this case.



This year the basement of the high school dorm has been opened up every day for student relaxation. The pool table is just about always in use. Davis' efficiency has really improved this past year also, he can shoot from two sides of the table at the same time.

A Time to Let Loose

and Relax

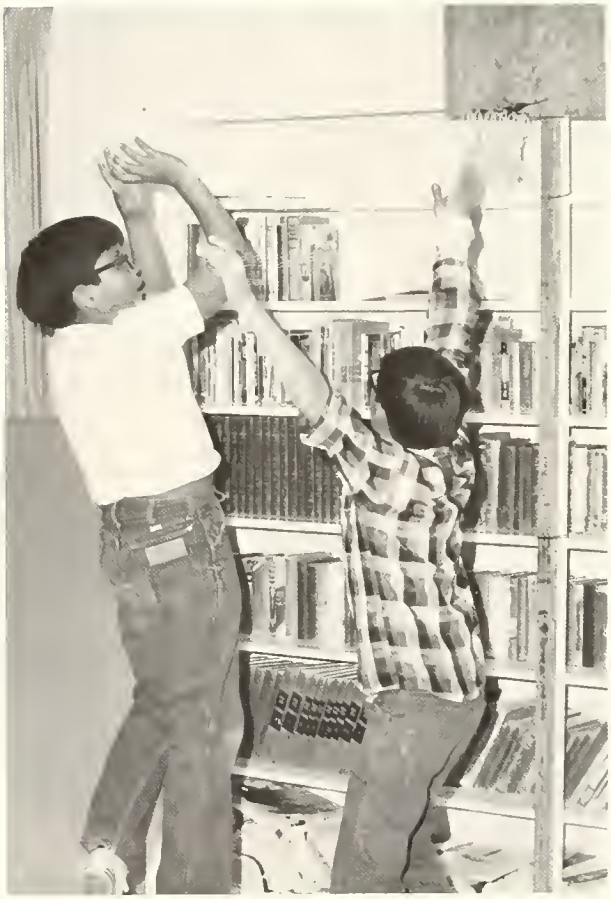
The seniors are busy providing some entertainment at one of the Student Council parties, featuring: "Liz" the Monk, Grandma Juan, Nurse Long, and the Greasy "Sloth".

The smaller children also lead active lives! Running to and fro on campus is part of any little boy's tag game. After school the girls often ride bikes or watch T.V. When night arrives, the children are models of complete innocence (?).

Our Little People

Mother care is often demonstrated by the dorm matrons, but the older students also have the opportunity to be little mothers.



Either crying, smiling, or in deep concentration, these younger students portray their own personal feelings.

Ah, meal time once again! This activity is enjoyed by everyone whether indoors or out.

Through out this yearbook, the Tse Ya-aniichii staff has tried to picture El Ano, meaning the year.

As the Seniors leave we would like to wish them God's richest blessing in the future.

We hope and pray that for everyone this was the year for a decision, a decision for Christ as his own personal Savior and Lord.

35 Years of Service

THANK-YOU MISS HOFSTRA FOR:

Serving faithfully as girls' dormitory matron;

Your steadfast devotion to your Lord and Master;

Your constant concern of souls in your care;

Your contribution to campus life, both spiritually and socially.

Eternity alone will reveal the souls you have influenced during these past thirty-five years of dedicated service.
